PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS

2012 – Present

Director, Coastal Resource and Resiliency Center, and Distinguished Professor of Sociology, University of South Alabama, Mobile, Alabama (tenured).

2008 – 2012

Professor of Sociology, Department of Sociology, Anthropology and Social Work, University of South Alabama, Mobile, Alabama (Tenured).

1988-2008

Professor of Sociology and Chair, Department of Sociology, Anthropology and Social Work, University of South Alabama, Mobile, Alabama (Tenured).

Responsibilities and duties as chair included the administration of an undergraduate and graduate (MA) academic department of fifteen full-time faculty, nine part-time faculty, and a budget of $1,227,316. The Department had approximately 245 undergraduate majors and 20 graduate students. Research administration and program development activities in cooperation with the Dean of College of Arts and Sciences were also part of the Chair's activities. During this time, departmental development has resulted in the Center for Archaeological Studies, Sociology/Anthropology Instructional Laboratory, USA Programs in Gerontology and a Bachelor's Degree in Social Work. These programs are administered through the Department of Sociology, Anthropology and Social Work.

Adjunct Scientist, Copper River Delta Institute, U.S. Forest Service, Cordova, Alaska.

Affiliate Scientist, Prince William Sound Science Center, Cordova, Alaska.

Adjunct Scientist, Social Science Research Center, Mississippi State University, Mississippi State, Mississippi.

Research Fellow, Social Science Research Institute, University of Central Florida, Orlando, Florida.

1987-1988

Executive Director of Management Design, Douglas and Associates International, Inc., Dallas, Texas and Consultant, Picou and Associates Consulting Services, College Station, Texas.

Responsibilities and duties included the administration and implementation of projects in basic, applied and programmatic areas. Other activities included participation in marketing, financial planning, public relations programs and organizational performance improvement systems. Organizational consultant for Solomon Associates, Inc., Dallas, Texas.

1974-1987

Associate Professor to Professor of Sociology, Sociology Department, Texas A&M University (Tenured).

Responsibilities and duties included teaching courses, conducting research and serving as Graduate Advisor in the Department of Sociology. Administrative responsibilities as graduate advisor included: (1) organizational design and management of graduate program (M.A.; Ph.D.); (2) advisor to graduate students; (3) director of graduate admissions and graduate program committees; (4) recruitment of scholarship students; and (5) curriculum development.

1986

Interim Associate Dean for Research, College of Liberal Arts June-August, 1986.

Administrative responsibilities included research and program development, supervising graduate research and graduate studies, general fund raising, facilitating cooperative research activities and proposal preparation. Served as assistant to the Dean in general administrative matters.

1971-1974

Research Specialist in Sociology of Education, The National Center for Vocational Education, and Assistant Professor of Sociology, Department of Sociology, The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio.

Responsibilities included proposal preparation and administration of all phases of a series of interdisciplinary research projects on the interpersonal structure for educational and career knowledge of inner-city youth. The basic objective of this research was the identification of interpersonal networks that enhanced the career learning skills of disadvantaged, African-American and Native-American youth. Responsibilities also included cooperative research activities with vocational psychologists, economists and representatives of external funding agencies. This research led to the development of the Career Education Community Based Learning Module. I also taught courses in education, theory and minority relations in the Department of Sociology.
